

EDWIN KO

Running for social officer

Nominator

Jack Yu

Seconder

Yuliet Lau, Jayden Lee

Why social officer?

I am committed to ensuring that ICPASS is a platform for imperial students to create positive social impacts and raise awareness on pressing social issues.

With my rich experiencing in organizing events and managing social media accounts, I believe that I am just the right fit for this position.

Why me?

- Familiar with the operations on organising events, particularly social events
- Familiar with managing social media accounts and websites.
- Diligent, responsible and a clear communicator.

Experience

Head of editorial team

2023–2024

St. Paul Co-ed Physics Club

- Supervised and managed the publishing of monthly physics articles.
- Involved in the writing, editing, and publishing of the articles.

PA subcommittee

2024 – present

ICPASS

- Designed and coordinated sub-committee led PA games for famine 24.
- Participated in PA events such as Birmingham speaking competition, LSE forum and Cambridge Inter-university Quiz.
- Wrote PA post about the use of rhetoric in politics.

Co-founder

2022 – 2024

STEMford

- Co-founded a volunteering organization to provide tutorial service to the underprivileged.
- Collaborated with community centers to organize science workshops for “new immigrants” in poverty in Hong Kong
- Managed social media account to ensure consistent and engaging academic content was regularly posted.

Goals

Managing social media and website

- Updating the contents in ICPASS website
- Manage ICPASS social media accounts
 - Regular posts to notify members of socials
 - Widespread promotion before famine 24

Boraden member’s social connections

- Invite companies to do career talks
 - Tech companies (E.g. Huawei)
- Organise socials for PASS subcommittee members
 - Christmas and New years social

